

4/2/71

Dear Tim,

Your note to Bandy and the tape arrived yesterday. Herewith the executed releases.

My invitation is open-end. We are almost in Frederick, we are but two, and we have to sofas that open into beds, so almost anytime, with no prior warning, you are welcome.

Or Bill.

Or others.

If you do not know Syracuse, it can be bitter cold there winters. I was stations at Oswego during WWII. We pulled full duty until the temperature got to 20 below.

I stillx remeber how warm it felt when it got up to zero.

And one Sunday, when the temperature was exactly 32 degree, we went to mess hal, in our shirts!

Thanks for your help and good wishes.

And good luck to you.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg

P.S. I understand the Huie-Dwyer confrontation was heavily edited. This was to be expected, and to a degree I did. I knew when the segs rans over 20 minutes. And I know that the promos included Huie calling me a nut. But we use what weapons we can and we present what ideas we are able to. Most people understand, even the silent. Then there comes a time they are not silent.